

Chicago Sun-Times

Wednesday, June 5, 1991

John Howell has signed on for three more years as afternoon jock at WUSN-FM (99.5). Howell said he will make "well into six figures—including the decimal point—along with all the CDs and T-shirts I can confiscate."

Wednesday, September 9, 1998

To mark his 38th birthday last week, WUSN-Fm (99.5) host John Howell was surprised on the air by calls from three life-long heroes—country superstar Waylon Jennings, retired radio legend Larry Lujack, and his father, Chuck Howell.

Friday, October 9, 1998

On "Honky Tonk Heroes" this weekend, John Howell hosts a rare interview and music salute to country star Waylon Jennings on WUSN-FM (99.5). The one-hour special airs at midnight Saturday.

Thursday, December 10, 1998

John Howell, afternoon personality at WUSN-FM (99.5), will host 90-second daily feature segments about the world of country music for "Nightwatch", the revamped overnight truckers' show on WBBM-AM (780). Both stations are owned by CBS. "I'm hoping these added duties would result in me finally being named CBS employee of the month," Howell said.

Thursday, January 14, 1999

John Howell has signed on for two more years as afternoon host at WUSN-FM (99.5). He also hosts segments about country music on the overnight truckers' show on WBBM-AM.

On a personal note, best wishes to Howell and his wife, Cindy, on the birth of their first child, William Charles Raymond Howell.

Blowing His Horn

Big John Howell and the Born to Boogie Band performs at the Arlington Country Music Festival at Arlington International Racecourse in Arlington Heights Sunday. Other acts included Restless Heart, Pam Tillis, Billy Ray Cyrus and Martina McBride.